GEORGE AND JULIUS

A Few Words From George

Twenty-one years is a mighty long time, folks, but when a fellow spends that time running the seed business, the years go fast. Yes sir! my seed company can celebrate its 21st birthday this year. I hope all of my customers have enjoyed dealing with me as much as I've looked forward to seeing them each year. We try to treat everyone fair and square which is a good reason, I believe, for the steady growth of the business.

I don't have a grand showroom for my customers to enter but the quality and quantity of the seed you buy is what I wish to emphasize. I'm like old Sam who said, "Business is good. I done bought a pig for $10.00, traded pig for wheel barrow, wheel barrow for calf, calf for bicycle and sold the bicycle for $10.00". "But you done make nothing, Sam," said Link. "Sho 'nough, but look at de business I been doing," responded Sam.

It has always been the custom to tell how I spent the summer when the seed season is over each year. Last July 9th my wife and I, also our dog, Julius Caesar, packed up and headed toward my old home state, Wisconsin. We had driven a little ways out of town when I turned to my wife and said, "Gosh, we should have brought the buffet along". She said, "Now George, don't try to be funny." I said, "Well, I'm not trying to be funny but I left my bill fold laying on the buffet."

In Marshall, Wisconsin, my old home town, I had a chance to visit with several of my old school mates. Thirty-seven years causes many changes in a person, especially on my friends' heads. They all had either gray hair or none at all. Maybe I've changed a little myself 'cause my hair too is turning gray but then who ever saw a black haired grandpa?

That's right, for I have a 6 months old grandson now. He lives way out in Idaho so I haven't seen him yet but I can tell by his pictures that he's okay.

I went up to one of my old friends in Marshall and said, "I hear you have an 8 o'clock curfew now." He said, "Yeah, we did have until some folks complained that it woke them up." That's like the city boy who was visiting on his uncles farm. At daybreak the farmer woke his nephew. "What's the trouble?" asked the city chap. "Have to get up and help gather the pumpkins," replied his uncle. "Great Scott! do you have to sneak up on them in the dark?" asked the sleepy nephew.

One evening my wife and I didn't know how to pass the time so I approached a native and asked, "Got a picture show here?" He said, "Nope." I asked, "Got a library or poolroom?" "Nope." He answered. Finally I said, "Well, how on earth do you folks amuse yourselves?" He brightened and said, "We go down to the grocery store in the evenings and watch the new bacon slicer work."

After we left Marshall, Wisconsin, we stopped for visits in Madison, Milwaukee, Oshkosh, and Chicago. I had a stiff neck most of the time we were in Chicago. Those sights were stupendous! It does a country pumpkin, like me, good to see a big city. Some of those buildings are really way up there. I wouldn't mind owning the Wrigley building but I can't make gum so I guess my place is selling seed right here in Marshall. When I was in Chicago I stopped a fellow and inquired how to get to the stockyards and he said, "Just follow your nose." That reminds me of the little boy who said, "My daddy doesn't keep pigs in our basement any more." I asked, "Why?" and he replied, "Cause the neighbors got wind of it."

Sometimes we get to thinking that our lot is pretty tough but I saw real poverty. Down on Commission Row in Chicago we saw people picking fruit and vegetables out of the gutter to eat. Let's all stop and think of those poor folks when we're grumbling, because we forget to appreciate the good vegetables that are grown from Cutler's seeds. When we stopped at one little country town I asked how farming conditions were and an old fellow spoke up and said, "Why, man, crops are so bad that I saw Grandpa Snazzie sit down to the table one day and eat fourteen acres of corn for dinner."

One day my brother and I were sitting in the living room of his home in Chicago and my dog sat on the porch, when we noticed two tramps out in front. "Why don't you go in?" asked one tramp of the other, "Dat dog's all right. Don't you see he's waggin' his tail?" "Sure I do", said the second tramp, "But he's a-growlin' too, and I don't know which end to believe."

So much for our summers vacation, maybe I'd better get back to the seed business now. There's no need for telling you how to make good gardens but you can all take a little tip from this little story. The Sunday school teacher asked the class what made the lily spring from a tiny bulb. Johnnie answered, "God." From the back row little Billy spoke up, "Fertilizer helps."

I must conclude this choice bit of literature now and may I see you all this spring?

GEORGE.

ALFALFA

Our seed all comes to us in sealed and branded bags, and is of the 1st grade. You have likely been hearing over the radio about the cheap seed you can buy. If you have, send for sample and see then if you want the grade of seed advertised.

Northern Grown Alfalfa

This does not need any explanation as everybody knows how good it is and every farm should have a few acres.

Do not buy Alfalfa seed that is offered cheap as it may be southern grown seed which is always cheaper than northern grown seed. The southern grown alfalfa, grown from this seed will not stand our cold winters.

This year the Minnesota law says that no Grimm's Alfalfa can be sold without a state seal so do not be misled by buying cheaper seed from some other state that does not have that law. Our seed is the blue tag or the best grade, put up in towel bags 30 and 60 pounds each and the price for that kind of Grimm's Alfalfa is per lb. -----40c

Our Cossack Alfalfa, as perhaps you all know, is a hardy plant, as much so as Grimm's, but makes a finer grade of hay.

Our price is per lb. -----35c

The Dakota 12 is nothing new, we all know about that.

Our price is per pound -----30c
Minnesota grown

Now that folks have had time to break their New Year's resolutions the conversation at the Every-Other-Thursdays Bridge and Tea Club is gettin' right interestin' again.

One for Ripley—A baby born in a Fargo, N. D., hospital yelled out its name with its first breath, the Fargo Forum reports. The family name is Waa.

When Teacher asked Tommy to name "12 Polar animals," he thought, dazedly, then exclaimed: "Six walruses and 6 seals!"

Milliner: "Pardon, Madam! This is the hat you bought; that's the box you're wearing!"

Grandma: "There are two words you shouldn't use, Nellie; they are 'lousy' and 'rotten'."
